

The SJHWGA January 2018 Newsletter

New Word: Exhaustipated

Here is a new word to add to your vocabulary.
It will be especially useful to us senior folks!

Exhaustipated: meaning "too tired to give a shit."

Happy New Year and we are all looking forward to a fun and exciting 2018. Please visit the sjhwga.com for the Holiday event slideshow, the 2018 calendar, tee times and so much more. Also, visit the scga.org website with their member outings and events for your 2018 event planning.

First up for the season is our chance to retain the Hills Creek Cup starting Monday, January 22, at Tijeras Creek, "Go SJHWGA". Our Hills Creek Captain, Lori Van Hove, has great plans for the three format competition, and a big "Thank You" to her for working hard to make this year's HCC possible.

Coming soon in March/April is the opening of Team Play, and we are so happy that Captain Lisa Free has stepped forward to lead SJHWGA, as we retain our Team Play association with SDCWGA in 2018. With our change from SDCWGA to the SCGA for much of our needs pertaining to USGA and the USGA's GHIN services, we still have confidence that the well organized and experienced SDCWGA will best meet our current Team Play needs. Please sign-up for the SJHWGA team at the General Meeting or contact Lisa Free (lisamanning@me.com) to help represent SJHWGA.

SJHWGA presents its 2018 Invitational, and Chair Sharon English is already at work to make it the event to remember. Please put July 5th on your calendar and bring your guest with you for the day's activities. Look to sign-up in March/April.

Our Tournament Chair, Robin Fong, has a calendar of events ready for your view on the sjhwga.com website and has planned a year filled with fun and games. Her weekly "Game of the Week" email will keep you current on the latest notices, winners, stats, and coming events plus more.

Join us at the next General Meeting so we can give you updates on all that is the SJHWGA. ~ Debbie ~
